

Knowledge Organiser Strand: Geography - Comparing geographical features of St. Ives and London.

Year 3 / 4 Spring term: Where will your ticket take you?

What should I already know?

- ◇ Understand vocabulary relating to human and physical geography and begin to use geographical skills.
- ◇ I am aware of my local environment.
- ◇ I am able to name and locate the oceans and continents around the world.

Key Vocabulary

Human geography, physical geography, hills, coasts, rivers, mountains, OS Maps, settlements, population, trade, symbols, keys, landmarks, similarities, differences.

Resources to help me with my learning!

Maps explained — www.youtube.com/watch?v=GxTqLAJ6u58

St. Ives town guide — www.youtube.com/watch?v=721j9MnebTg

Rivers and their importance - www.youtube.com/watch?v=IK3bgjiEE

What is the difference between human and physical geography — www.bbc.co.uk/bitesize/topics/zqj3n9q/articles/zr8q7nb

What will I know by the end of this unit?

- ◇ I know some physical geographical features of Cornwall including coasts, hills and rivers
- ◇ I know some physical geographical features of London including rivers
- ◇ I know some human geographical features of Cornwall including settlements, population and trade
- ◇ I know some human geographical features of London including settlements, population and trade
- ◇ I can use OS maps and know some symbols
- ◇ I know some landmarks and features of St. Ives
- ◇ I know some geographical similarities and differences between St. Ives and London

Ordnance survey (OS) map of Cornwall.

London, Thames river and some of London's geographical features.

St. Ives and the coastline around St. Ives.