

What should I already know?

- ◇ That art can be used to express emotion
- ◇ That sculptures are a type of art
- ◇ Techniques for using a range of different materials including clay, water colour paints, sketching pencils, charcoal and oil pastels.

Key Vocabulary

propaganda, Cenotaph, sculptures, statues, memorials, Eric Kennington, Sir Edwin Lutyens, Henry Moore, perspective, shading, Resources to help me with my learning!

- ◇ Eric Kennington: <https://www.tate.org.uk/art/artists/eric-kennington-1399>
- ◇ Henry Moore: <https://www.tate.org.uk/kids/explore/who-is/who-henry-moore>
- ◇ Henry Moore: <https://kids.britannica.com/kids/article/Henry-Moore/353490>
- ◇ BBC Bitesize KS2 Art: <https://www.bbc.co.uk/bitesize/subjects/zn3rkqt>

What will I know by the end of this unit?

- I know that art can be used to provoke thought and emotions.
- I know that Sir Edwin Lutyens designed the Cenotaph in London in 1919.
- I know that Eric Kennington was an official war artist in WW1 and WW2 famous for his Making Soldiers pieces.
- I know that Henry Moore was an official WW2 artist who drew Tube Shelter Perspective in 1941.
- I know that art was used in WW1 propaganda posters

